

NATIONAL COHESIVE WILDLAND FIRE MANAGEMENT STRATEGY

Oct. 28, 2020 | 11-2 pm MDT Virtual Workshop

The Cohesive Strategy in 2020 - Dynamic Adaptation in a Novel World

Presented by International Association of Wildland Fire in Partnership with Wildland Fire Leadership Council (WFLC) and its Western, Southeastern and Northeastern Regional Strategy Committees

MDT	Wednesday, October 28, 2020
11:00-11:10	Welcome, Leaders Intent, Purpose Workshop Co-Chair: Tami Parkinson, USFS RD&A

11:10-11:45	FACILITATED OPENING PANEL Jeff Rupert, Director, Office of Wildland Fire, DOI; Vicki Christiansen, Chief, US Forest Service; George Geissler, State Forester, Washington State DNR
11:45-12:00	Q&A
12:00-12:30	Shared Stewardship Implementation Pilot Project Lowell Ballard, Timmons Group
12:30-12:40	Break
12:40-12:50	Smoke Readiness for Low Income, Indigenous Communities Bill Tripp, Director Natural Resources, Karuk Tribe
12:50-1:00	Necessity is the Mother of Invention - Finding and Training Crews from Local Fire Departments Dave Celino, Chief Fire Warden, Massachusetts DCR
1:00-1:10	Wildfire Response Amid a Pandemic and Hurricanes Mark Stanford and Les Rogers, Texas A&M Forest Service
1:10-1:20	Adaptations to the Life of an Agency Administrator in 2020 Jason Kuiken, Forest Supervisor, Stanislaus National Forest, USFS Region 5
1:20-1:50	Q&A
1:50-2:00	Workshop Wrap Up Helen Mohr, Co-Chair, 4th Cohesive Strategy Workshop Consortium of Appalachian Fire Managers and Scientists, US Forest Service

